Movies - No.1 for Entertainment

Important note for all customers

The films featured below are expected to become available to Roadshow during September 2010. Dates vary according to each title, and bookings are subject to availability and certain terms and conditions may prevail depending on the nature of the intended screening. To that extent some films may not be available; however Roadshow will endeavour to make the best films available to suit your purpose. Please discuss your individual requirements with your Roadshow representative. These film lists were correct at the time of printing but may be subject to change. Bookings are based on availability. Outdoor screenings, or any screening that requires an admittance fee (i.e. a commercial screening) or any screening that will be advertised to the general public are strictly prohibited unless Roadshow provides prior written authorisation. Films made available for screening prior to DVD release may also attract a premium price.

ACCIDENTS HAPPEN

Drama, Rated M, 101 Minutes

Starring: Harrison Gilbertson, Geena Davis, Joel Tobeck

After a family tragedy, 15-year-old Billy Conway has become the de facto glue between his bitter mother Gloria, stoic father Larry, and distant brother Ray. When Billy starts to act out, everything changes for him and his family. But the ensuing chaos may just be what the family needs to move on. DVD available September 16.

BROOKLYN'S FINEST

Thriller/Drama, Rated MA, 155 Minutes

Starring: Richard Gere, Don Cheadle, Ethan Hawke, Wesley Snipes

Eddie is a long-serving patrolman who has seen it all and become disenchanted, with only 7 days left before he can pull the pin and retire. Undercover cop Tango has been on the streets too long, causing him to protect Caz, the drug kingpin target he is out to catch. Sal is a narcotics cop who is under tremendous pressure to provide a home for his pregnant wife and two children, and the temptation of drug money at work is causing him to question what to do. In the end, all three police officers will come together. DVD available September 2.

CHRISTMAS CAROL

Animated/Family, Rated PG, 96 Minutes

Featuring voices of: Jim Carrey, Gary Oldman, Colin Firth

Ebenezer Scrooge begins the Christmas holiday with his usual miserly contempt, barking at his faithful clerk and his cheery nephew. But when the ghosts of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come take him on an eye-opening journey revealing truths Old Scrooge is reluctant to face, he must open his heart to undo years of ill will before it's too late. Video available September 1, DVD available November 24.

CONCERT, THE

Drama, Rated M, 118 Minutes

Starring: Alexei Guskov, Mélanie Laurent

In French and Russian with English subtitles

After being humiliatingly fired mid-concert, conductor Andrei Filipov is demoted to janitor. Thirty years later, while cleaning the boss' office, a fax comes in from Paris, urgently wanting to book the orchestra to fill an unexpected gap. It's short notice but Andrei sees a chance to finish his Tchaikovsky concerto - with the scattered ragtag musos he once worked with masquerading as the orchestra, and guest violinist Anne-Marie. It's an audacious plan and is threatened with failure, but the musos finally get to Paris. Their real troubles start as Andrei faces a decision about a personal secret he is unsure about. DVD available September 16.

FISH TANK

Drama, Rated MA, 123 Minutes

Starring: Katie Jarvis, Michael Fassbender, Kierston Wareing

Mia is a volatile 15-year-old, who is always in trouble; she has been excluded from school and is ostracized by her friends. One summer's day her mother brings home a mysterious stranger, Connor, who promises to change everything and bring love into all their lives. DVD available September 23.

FLICKA 2

Family, Rated G, 113 Minutes

Starring: Tammin Sursok, Patrick Warburton

Carrie is a big-city teenager whose life is turned upside down when she moves to a horse ranch in Wyoming to live with her father. But everything changes when Carrie meets Flicka, a wild, jet-black mustang who's just as free-spirited and strong-willed as Carrie. The two form a special bond, and Carrie opens her heart to her father and local boy Jake. But when a jealous rival puts Flicka's life in jeopardy, Carrie must do whatever it takes to save her best friend. DVD available September 8.

GENTLEMEN BRONCOS

Comedy, Rated PG, 116 Minutes

Starring: Michael Angarano, Jemaine Clement

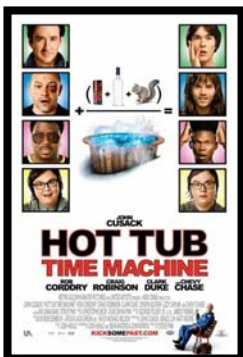

Benjamin, home-schooled by his eccentric mother, is a loner whose passion for writing leads him on a journey as his story first gets ripped off by the legendary fantasy novelist, Ronald Chevalier, and then is adapted into a disastrous movie by the small town's most prolific homespun filmmaker. DVD available September 1.

GREATEST, THE

Drama, Rated M, 97 Minutes

Starring: Carey Mulligan, Pierce Brosnan, Susan Sarandon

Allen and Grace Brewer are a grief-stricken couple whose family has been pushed to the breaking point by the death of their older son, Bennett, in a car crash. When a young woman, Rose, shows up a few months later announcing that she is pregnant with Bennett's child, the Brewers are forced to take her in. At first, Rose's presence threatens to tear the family even further apart but eventually, her interaction with each of the Brewers proves to be the very thing that brings them back together. DVD available September 9.

HOT TUB TIME MACHINE

Comedy, Rated MA, 95 Minutes

Starring: John Cusack, Rob Corddry, Craig Robinson

Things are looking grim for childhood friends Adam, Lou, Nic and Adam's nephew Jacob when they decide to drive to a ski resort, which holds great memories from over 20 years ago. After a crazy night of drinking and madness in the hot tub on their balcony, they wake up to find themselves in 1986. Faced with the chance they have to relive the pain and angst all over again, the guys focus on the chance that they can change the future and find love, confidence and happiness when (and if) they are able to find their way back to 2010. DVD available September 1.
